

Oct 1 – Nov 21

Service: In Their Footsteps

Tuesday, November 19 @ 7PM

at North Andover High School

Don Mullan

Hope Initiatives International

Irish journalist, author, movie/documentary producer, humanitarian & activist

Don will speak about the Christmas Truce of 1914 and the efforts to have the area named a UNESCO World Heritage site. British historian Piers Brendon describes the Truce as “... a moment of humanity in a time of carnage ... what must be the most extraordinary celebration of a Christmas since those notable goings-on in Bethlehem.” Don will also speak about his other humanitarian efforts.

Photo from donmullan.org

Don Mullan (right), surveys the site of the 1914 Christmas Truce with British PM, David Cameron; Messines Chief Executive, Patrick Florisson; and Irish Taoiseach, Enda Kenny (2014)

Free, all are welcome

North Andover Reads: <http://nak12.net/NAReads>

Co-sponsored by Stevens Memorial Library & North Andover Public School District

Stevens Memorial Library, 345 Main Street, North Andover 978-688-9505

www.StevensMemLib.org

@StevensMemLib

10/02/19

